10. Indicate your most important impressions about this mobility.

Cultural activities: sauna and ice swimming.

Socialization .

Full of experience.

The overall experience to meet another culture.

The school Vihdin Lukio is excellent, well equipped. The nature is beautiful, the ambient so different from my homeland.

Learning about Finland, education system and other countries.

The team spirit. Film learning. The moments of conviviality and cultural knowledge about Finland. Free time available.

The most important impressions about this mobility were the way people treat us so gently, the beautiful views and the funny and cool activities that made me learn a lot of things and improve myself!

I had the opportunity to learn about other countries cultures and to work with different people, develop my English. It helped me to be less shy and to talk more with other people even when I don't know them. The country had amazing views and the hosts were always trying to make us feel comfortable in their country. I also loved the different activities that we did on school and after school.

It improved my language skills, my autonomy and my independence.

The cultural evidences, and the food.

Development of cultural and language skills. knowledge of the dynamics of another education system. :)

The host family.

Generally very kind and helpful!

Thank you for so nice welcoming and big thanks to Nella Nyfors - the best host!:))

I really liked the week spent in Finland, it was rich and every day was interesting in its own way.

The winter landscape made the biggest impression on me. People who are much quieter than the people of my country. I will remember nice moments with the people from the project.

Thank you, lina and Vihdin Lukio!
